Reflecting on God's Word

I always thought it took a lot of nerve for Elijah to beg that poor woman for a meal. . It would be easier to understand if we heard the verse before this reading begins: God tells the prophet that he has "commanded a widow...to feed you." (1Kgs 17:9)

Now the widow was not aware of this command. But she does as Elijah asked. That took even more faith than Elijah showed. She shows us that we are obeying God's commands when we trust him. Most of those commands come not from a vision, but from someone's cry for help.

I wonder how many good people have passed up a chance to do God's will because they didn't hear directly from God what to do. When you hear that a tornado destroyed a nearby neighborhood, do you hear God asking you to help? Do you hear God's voice when you read in the bulletin that the food pantry is running low?

And if you do hear God calling in these examples, how do you respond? Do you have the faith of the woman whose few cents were all that she had. It takes a lot of courage to trust God completely. Do you have what it takes?
Tom Schmidt

Siempre pensé que Elías tuvo mucho valor para pedirle comida a esa mujer pobre. Sería más fácil de entender si escucháramos el versículo anterior a esta lectura: Dios le dice al profeta que "ha ordenado a una viuda... que te alimente" (1 Reyes 17,9).

Ahora bien, la viuda no sabía de esta orden pero hace lo que Elías le pidió de todos modos. Eso requirió incluso más fe de la que Elías demostró. Ella nos demuestra que estamos obedeciendo los mandatos de Dios cuando confiamos en él. La mayoría de esos mandatos no provienen de una visión, sino del grito de ayuda de otra persona.

Me pregunto cuántas personas buenas han dejado pasar la oportunidad de hacer la voluntad de Dios porque no escucharon qué deberían hacer directamente de Dios. Cuando escuchas que un tornado destruyó un vecindario cercano, ¿escuchas a Dios pidiéndote ayuda? ¿Escuchas la voz de Dios cuando lees en el boletín que necesitan comida para la despensa de alimentos para los pobres?

Y si escuchas a Dios llamándote en estos ejemplos, ¿cómo respondes? ¿Tienes la fe de la mujer que sólo tenía unos cuantos centavos? Se necesita mucho valor para confiar plenamente en Dios. ¿Tienes suficiente?
Tom Schmidt
