Reflecting on God's Word

In our second reading from Hebrews, we see that when Jesus allowed himself to be crucified he was actually being a priest, offering himself for the sins of the world. After giving his life for us, he takes his place as God's equal. He is now the eternal Priest, so all clergy since the time of Jesus are visible signs of that priesthood.

When we celebrate the Eucharist, Jesus' sacrifice is there. We are present at his death and resurrection, without needing a flux capacitor or a time warp. His sacrifice is an eternal one, redeeming all past and future sins. So if you have come back to church after being absent for years, God has already offered you forgiveness.

The Eucharist also reminds us that Jesus is present in glory, with us always, sharing his priesthood with all the baptized. We can show God's mercy by forgiving each other. Since Jesus lives in us, we offer our lives as sacrifice for sins. Does that mean we are supposed to seek ways to suffer? No, it means the suffering we cannot avoid can become our offering to God, a way to take up our cross as Jesus did, and a way to experience God's power in our weakness.

At the Eucharist, we pray with the priest, "that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God..." All the sacrifices we make, from accepting serious illness, to giving up something for Lent, are ways we take part in the priesthood of Christ.
Tom Schmidt

En la segunda lectura de Hebreos, vemos que cuando Jesús se dejó crucificar, en realidad estaba siendo un sacerdote, ofreciéndose por los pecados del mundo. Después de dar su vida por nosotros, toma su lugar como igual a Dios. Ahora es el Sacerdote eterno, por lo que todos los clérigos desde el tiempo de Jesús son signos visibles de ese sacerdocio.

Cuando celebramos la Eucaristía, el sacrificio de Jesús está ahí. Estamos presentes en su muerte y resurrección, sin necesidad de un "flux capacitor" o un túnel del tiempo. Su sacrificio es eterno, redimiendo todos los pecados pasados y futuros. Entonces, si has regresado a la Iglesia después de estar ausente durante años, Dios ya te ha ofrecido el perdón.

La Eucaristía también nos recuerda que Jesús está presente en la gloria, está siempre con nosotros, compartiendo su sacerdocio con todos los bautizados. Podemos mostrar la misericordia de Dios perdonándonos unos a otros. Dado que Jesús vive en nosotros, ofrecemos nuestras vidas como sacrificio por los pecados. ¿Eso significa que se supone que debemos buscar formas de sufrir? No, significa que el sufrimiento que no podemos evitar puede convertirse en ofrenda a Dios, una forma de tomar nuestra cruz como lo hizo Jesús y una forma de experimentar el poder de Dios en la debilidad.

En la Eucaristía, oramos con el sacerdote: "para que mi sacrificio y el tuyo sean agradables a Dios..." Todos los sacrificios que hacemos, desde aceptar una enfermedad grave hasta renunciar a algo durante la Cuaresma, son formas en las que participamos en el sacerdocio de Cristo.
Tom Schmidt

Back to Basics- Angel Program

It's that time of year again to participate in the Back to Basics- Angel Program. This program helps local school youth in our community with the basic essentials of shoes, socks and underwear. Please consider requesting an "Angel" name and purchasing the needed items or you can donate $30 and the items will be purchased for you. Each child will need: a pair of sneakers, socks (3-6 pair) and underwear (3-6 pair) and a small toy. The items don't need to be name brand, but they need to be 'New.' Please contact Shirlon St Amour at (561) 644-8638 or shirlonmccarty@att.net for more information and to receive your Angel name.

Place all items in a gift bag unwrapped with the Angel tag information on the outside and return them to church by Sunday December 8th.

Thank you in advance for your generosity!

END OF YEAR REMINDER

The 2024 DSA concludes on December 31, 2024
Please send in your contributions

This is a friendly reminder that the 2024 Diocesan Services Appeal concludes on December 31, 2024.

If you have not yet donated to this appeal, please support our Diocese as we provide funding for local ministries that protect the most vulnerable, from the unborn child to the elderly, provide food for people in need, sustain our Catholic schools, help seminarians preparing for the priesthood, and so much more.

As this year's theme, Give us this day our daily bread (Matthew 6:11) states, we are reminded to embrace the current phase of the National Eucharistic Revival that focuses on fostering Eucharistic devotion and strengthening our liturgical life through the celebration of the Mass. Giving to the DSA this year also supports the milestone anniversary of establishing our Diocese 40 years ago and the years since that we have steadfastly served our communities as a Eucharistic people.

By supporting the appeal, you will help make a great difference in your parish and Diocese, for which we are truly grateful. Your generosity will sustain our tradition of sharing and bringing hope to others. To donate, scan this QR code to the left.
